THE BAY LEAF

PUBLISHED WEEKLY BY THE ASSOCIATED STUDENTS OF THE SAN FRANCISCO STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE

VOL. X — SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, JANUARY 16, 1931 — No. 2

S. T. C. MOURNS VAINLY FOR MR. RAY, ALCOHOL VICTIM

PRESIDENT RECEIVES AMAZING NEWS VIA HIS TELEPHONE

Amid the chaos of the elements and the spasmodic flickerings of an electric light in its last stages, Dr. Roberts' phone rang out sharply, penetrating like a sabre the chill atmosphere and causing Dr. Roberts to jump nervously before answering it. However, if he jumped before answering, he leaped after doing so. The voice on the other end of the wire informed Dr. Roberts in casual tones that he was speaking with the city morgue. Into his agonized ear the informer stated that Mr. Frank Ray had died suddenly at dawn, a victim of acute alcoholism.

FRANK RAY

Dr. Roberts' Called

Two moments later Dr. Roberts had called Mr. Ray's residence and heard with relief that individual's voice over the wire in weary, resigned tones. It appears that Mr. Ray had been called to the telephone many times that wild morning by panic-stricken friends who had either heard about or read in the morning newspapers the drastic accounts of his sad and untimely death.

While being sincerely sorry for the unfortunate one who met his fate through his passion for liquid refreshment, the college rejoices in the fact that Mr. Ray is vitally alive and quite healthy in spite of the fact that his slumbers were disturbed and his day upset by frequent 'phone calls which he finally expected to continue forever and anon.

In Print Before

This is the second time within a year that the name Frank Ray has been seen in print. On the first occasion, a gentleman by that name was arrested on a charge of burglary and probably even now living on the charity of one of the state's famous institutions.

It is hoped that in the future all those sharing Mr. Ray's name will refrain from breaking into print in any such fashion as has previously occured. It must be distrubing.

NIGHT WORK STARTS

The S. T. C. extension classes which are held in San Francisco, started last week. The classes in Oakland and Alameda will begin this week. Work will also be given in Burlingame and Berkeley.

EVERYBODY'S WEEKLY TIT-FITS

I'm worried about Mother. Now she wants us to call her Eloise.

Petey the Pedagogue Says:

Smart students who study at semester's start with nonstop speed save stinging stigma of self-suffering when same semester's spent.

DELTA PHI UPSILON ENTERTAINS CHICO, SAN JOSE CHAPTERS

San Francisco (Epsilon) Chapter of Delta Phi Upsilon, National Kindergarten-Primary Honor Fraternity, was hostess to Delta Chapter of Chico State Teachers College and Zeta Chapter of San Jose State College last week end, Janary 9th, 10th and 11th, in celebration of Founders Day anniversary. Delta Phi Upsilon was founded January 8th, 1923, at Broad Oaks Training School near Pasadena, and now has six active chapters and a large alumni group.

Entertainment Given

An extensive program was carried out in entertaining the visitors. On Friday, attendance at the matinee concert of the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra was followed by a buffet supper and joint business meeting at the Green street home of Miss Marion Barbour. Saturday morning an initiation ceremony was held in the Kindergarten-Primary Building at the College, and following that, two new members were pledged to Epsilon Chapter. They are Miss Estelle Barbieri and Mrs. Alma Eckerle. After an interesting visit to the Potrero Hill Nursery School and to the old Mission Dolores, luncheon was served to twenty-two of the girls at the Russian Tea Room. In the evening a banquet was given in the Red Room of the Bellevue Hotel, followed by a theater party at the Curran Theater.

Met At City Club

The miniature convention was concluded with an iformal waffle breakfast and farewell meeting at the Woman's City Club. Chairmen in charge of the program, under the leadership of Miss Laura David, president of Epsilon chapter and official hostess were: Mrs. Ruth Passow, theatre arrangements; Mrs. Lucie Huff, breakfast; Gertrude Olsson, banquet; Wilma Orton, luncheon.

An invitation has been extended by Miss Bertha Hughes, president, Miss Clara Kapps, faculty advisor, of Delta Chapter, to the San Francisco and San Jose chapters for a visit to their college at Chico and to Mt. Shasta during the spring vacation.

POSITIONS TO BE FOUND FOR WOMEN

Students who know of any opportunities for college women who are working their way through college are requested to give such information to Miss Mary A. Ward, dean of women. Such positions as coaching, or minding children in the afternoon or evening, helping with housework, or any other positions for which the students are given compensation are in demand. Students may notify Dean Ward of such opportunitites either by leaving a note in her mail box or by calling on Dean Ward Monday, Tuesday, Thursday, or Friday between ten and eleven o'clock or Tuesday and Thursday between two and three o'clock.

BEAUTIES OF CITY SKETCHED BY CLUB

Quaint little Joyce street, rendevouz of Bohemians and artists will be sketched by the Art Club on Saturday, January 24, when they will meet in front of Rudolf's Art Club in Chinatown at nine o'clock.

Having alternate meetings here at college and sketching trips in the city, the Art Club get-together every Saturday under the leadership of Miss Evelyn Mayer and Sue McCarte, president.

ASSEMBLY IS SCHEDULED

Editor Calls For Volunteer Workers For 1931 Yearbook

Who has plenty of spare time and is willing to spend it working on the annual? Ciwa Griffiths, the editor of the S. T. C. Yearbook, is asking for volunteers to assist in coloring the illustrations. The annual has a very distinctive feature in that all of the colored illustrations are hand painted by the students. This year the theme is to be Spanish; so any one who is interested in coloring Spanish illustrations should sign up now for this work. Besides this, there is an opportunity for those interested in either the business or editorial part of the annual to help in these fields. Ciwa Griffiths, Box 436, wishes the names of all those interested in doing either the art or editorial work, but if you are interested in the business end of the journal, see Theodore Bird or Betty Brown.

The staff this year consists of Ciwa Griffiths, editor-in-chief; Margaret Hazelwood and Mrs. P. Herndon, assistant editors; Theodore Bird, business manager; and Betty Brown, advertising manager. Mrs. Ellsworth is the sponsor of the annual, while Mr. Boulware takes care of the financial problems.

The Franciscan will contain class pictures, faculty pictures, and views of the campus. It tells all about the various clubs, and this year, it will have a large men's sport section with many cuts and snapshots. This is something which it has never had before; so everyone is looking forward to the best annual the college has ever produced.

WHO'S WHO

STUDENT BODY OFFICERS

President — Catherine O'Sullivan.
Vice-President — Marion Donaldson.
Secretary—Alice Zander.
Treasurer—Marjorie Phillips.
Yell Leader — Dorothy Williamson.

CLASS PPRESIDENTS

May '31—Myrtle Saxe.
Dec. '31—Ninetta De Luca.
May '32—Lillian Tyrrell.
Dec. '32—Elena Foppiano.
May '33—Margaret Cassidy.
Dec. '33—Grace Perret.
May '34—Don Horner.
Dec. '34—Bob Petersen.

PUBLICATIONS

Editor of the Bayleaf—Mildred Scott.
Business Manager — Webster Allen.
Board of Control—Sarah Mason, Elizabeth Baker, Anne Sanbraillo, Edna Denhard, Marian Phillips.
Editor of the Franciscan—Ciwa Griffiths.
Business Manager — Theodore Bird.
Board of Control — Betty Brown, Sylvia Burke, Claire Howard, Betty Kennedy, Mae Kallmar, Elizabeth Moller, Edith Schultz, Marguerite Schweizer.

CLUB PRESIDENTS

Glee Club—Thelma Silvia.
Phi Lambda Chi—Alice Rich.
Siena Club—Margaret Lemon.
Phi Delta Upsilon — Laura David.
Delta Sigma—Alice Heim.
Men's Club—Everett O'Rourke
W. A. A.—Gladys Benerd.
Press Club—Roselyn Hyde.
Tumbling Club—Lillian DeHay
Sphinx Club—Eleanor Burch.
Scribes Club—Jane Knight.
Delta Sigma Nu—Katherine Conroy.
Kindergarten-Primary Club — Amy Taubman.
International—Henry Barsotti
Dames—Fern Carlton.
Nyoda—Kathleen Semple.
College Theater—Mae Connolly
Art Club—Sue McCarte.

PRESS CLUB MEETS TODAY TO DISCUSS BUSINESS OF TERM

With a definite aim in view of stimulating the interest of the student body and faculty in its every activity, the Press Club is reducing its dues to twenty-five cents a term that a greater membership may be had. It also invites every member of the college who is interested in journalistic work to attend its meetings which are held twice a month.

Business meetings are held the second week, and in the last week a social gathering is called; at the latter times speakers will address the groups.

As a result of the election of officers last term, Rosalyn Hyde, president; Marilaton Stewart, vice-president; Frances Youell, secretary; Jane Knight, treasurer; and Doris Weinstrom, social chairman, will guide the activities of the young Press Club this spring.

Marilaton Stewart as vice-president automatically assumes the chairmanship of the Advisory Board of which Juanita Cole, Ruth Raymond, Marie Sime, Betty Gilchrist, Rosalyn Hyde, and Webster Allen are members.

The Press Club, under the sponsorship of Mrs. T. H. Ellsworth, will meet for the first time this term today at 12:15 in room 119.

MR. BUTLER FOUND ALWAYS PUNCTUAL

Mr. Butler is punctual. Yes, sir, Mr. Butler is very punctual. He is always on time. Nobody can dispute that fact.

Not so very long ago, this instructor's eight o'clock class was beginning to doubt the statement. Like all good little boys and girls, the group was seated at ten minutes past eight, but Mr. Butler had not appeared. The clock ticket on, the class waited expectantly, the minute hand moved slowly on.

Suddenly the door swung open and the late arriver appeared. The class looked at him. The class looked at the clock. Mr. Butler seemed serene. The clock pointed to thirteen minutes past eight. Mr. Butler looked at the clock. Mr. Butler looked at his watch. Then without a word he walked over to the clock and moved the hand back to ten after.

Punctual Mr. Butler!

COLLEGE P. T. A. TO OFFER SCHOLARSHIP

Final arrangements are being completed by the Parent Teacher's Association of the San Francisco State Teachers' College for their first definite contribution to the student body. This association has planned to give two yearly loans to students eligible to receive them. To be eligible, a student must be in good standing in the college, he must have letters of recommendation from the college administration department, and must be in need of financial assistance. These loans are given to the student without interest and with the understanding that such loans shall be repaid when the student has secured a position.

The Social Welfare committee, which is a branch of the Parent Teachers' Association, has been appointed to consider ways and means of helping the students of the college.

Dean Ward and Dean Cox hope that considerable aid will be given to the employment problem through this association.

Stew (passionately): "You are trying to forget me!"

Her: "No-o, I'm trying to remember you."

Debating Society Plans Discussions For This Semester

The debating society of S. T. C., Delta Sigma, is preparing to meet teams of Stanford University, the University of San Francisco, and Weber College within the next three months. Probable questions, which were accepted by the society at its opening spring meeting, are: "Resolved, that the Pathological Treatment of Criminals Be Substituted for the Present Penal System" and "Resolved, that the United States Recognize Soviet Russia."

A committee is at work arranging the soiciety's semi-annual dinner, which will follow an informal reception to new members on January 26. The membership of Delta Sigma is comparatively small, and, in view of its active program, students that are in the least way interested in debating or public speaking are encouraged to visit the Monday noon meetings in Room 109. "Those students studying pre-legal courses as well as those who intend becoming teachers will find membership in Delta Sigma not only an honor but an asset," said Alice Heim, president.

The remainder of the officers is the following: vice-president, Margaret Higginson; secretary, Charline Crawford; treasurer, Corinne Boylan; and debate manager, Phyliss Haley.

Miss Ruth E. Richards, sponsor of Delta Sigma, has suggested that the society grant membership to students who cannot debate. Those students may help the society in other ways. Miss Richards closed the first meeting of the spring semester by presenting the society with a belated Christmas gift, a handsomely engraved record book.

ADVISORY COUNCIL ASSISTS DEAN WARD

This semester Dean Mary Ward will become more closely acquainted with the freshmen through the members of the Advisory Council, and not by means of the Dean's Conference which heretofore freshmen have included on their college programs. Each student advisor with the group of freshmen who have been assigned to him, will meet with Dean Ward to discuss college problems.

Although this procedure is only an experiment, Dean Ward hopes that she will meet the freshmen more quickly this way, and she will probably be able to do more toward locating those students who need help. The freshmen are asked to watch the Bulletin Board for announcements or notices concerning this matter.

MAY '33 SCHEDULES EVENTS FOR SPRING

The class of May '33 will have as its presiding officers during the Spring term of 1931, Margaret Cassidy, president; Marion Tardif, vice-president; Marie Spezia, secretary-treasurer; and Frank Howard, yell-leader.

The events for this term will be the traditional semi-annual dinner and one other class activity which has not yet been decided upon.

At the last meeting of the Fall term, 1930, the members of the class presented Thelma Rees, the outgoing president, with a gold school ring for her valiant efforts in their behalf.

Members of the class are looking forward to a successful semester under Margaret Cassidy, and will try to cooperate with her in every way.

Women are born naked and spend most of their time trying to get back to their original state.

PRESIDENT ROBERTS ADDRESSES COLLEGE

BAPTIST CHURCH IS SCENE OF FIRST GATHERING

The first assembly of the term is to be held in the First Baptist Church, which is located on the corner of Waller and Laguna Sts., at two o'clock, Wednesday, January 21.

Viola Giesen
Chairman

This assembly is to feature the semi-annual message extended by Dr. Alexander C. Roberts, president of the San Francisco State Teachers College, to the members of the college. In his address, Dr. Roberts will extend his official welcome to the new freshmen.

This assembly is to feature the semi-annual message extended by Dr. Alexander C. Roberts, president of the San Francisco State Teachers College, to the members of the college. In his address, Dr. Roberts will extend his official welcome to the new freshmen.

President To Speak

Following his speech, Miss Catherrine O'Sullivan, president of the student body, will give her word of welcome to the associated students.

The student body officers will then be presented, so that everyone will be assured of difinitely knowing who's who in S. T. C. It is further planned that the several new members of the faculty are to be formally presented to the gathering.

Instrumental music, by some of the institution's most well-known artists is to be inserted throughout the program.

The whole affair is to be in charge of Viola Giesen, chairman of assemblies. She already promises that the college assemblies will become a more prominent, vital part of extra-curricular activities this semester.

"Because of the increasing demand for more, varied assemblies and get-togethers," says Miss Giesen, "a co-chairman of assemblies has been appointed. This new appointee, who is to be introduced at our first assembly, will take charge of all rallies and general entertainments of the college. For it is the earnest desire of both my co-chairman and myself to hold an assembly every two weeks if possible. In this way we can arrange to please at least all of the people part of the time."

Classes Dismissed

Everyone is assured that next Wednesday all 2 o'clock classes will be dismissed in order that all may attend the initial assembly of the semester. This proceedure means that a capacity attendance of both faculty and students is expected to start the term off right.

CALENDAR

Friday, January 16:
4-6 p. m.—W.A.A. Freshman Spread.
Saturday, January 17:
Inter-collegiate Bull Session.
Wednesday, January 21:
2 p. m.—First Assembly at the First Baptist Church.
Wednesday, January 28:
4 p. m.—Freshman Reception in the Gym.
Friday, January 30:
Phi Lambda Chi Pledges.
Saturday, January 31:
Mens' Club Formal.
Wednesday, February 4:
Glee Club Dinner Party.
Friday, February 6:
S. T. C. vs. Marin J. C. Gym, 4:00 o'clock.

THE BAY LEAF

Published Weekly by the Associated Students of the
STATE TEACHERS COLLEGE OF
SAN FRANCISCO, CALIFORNIA

MILDRED SCOTT ..... EDITOR-IN-CHIEF
RUTH LESCINSKI ..... News Editor
VIOLA GIESEN ..... Feature Editor
BETTY GILCHRIST ..... Make-up Editor
MARSHALL DOUGLAS ..... Sport Editor
SIDNEY TRAGER ..... Assistant Sport Editor
MRS. T. H. ELLSWORTH ..... Faculty Advisor

ASSOCIATE EDITORS

Rosalyn Hyde, Ruth Delaney, Ruth Sturgeon
Ruth Herndon, Marilaton Stewart, Ernestine Fox
Ruth Raymond

FEATURE WRITERS

Marie Sime, Marjorie Thorton, Ernestine Fox

REPORTERS

Natalie Beggs, Mae Levin, James Stinchcomb
Jess Fisher, Stelter Oksen, Fred Wahl
Muriel Ireland, Mary Davis, Julie Seyd
Margaret Lemon, Lillian Hauptle, Kirk Truman
Eva Noel, Gertrude Kraus, Allen Wheaton
Calista Bostick, Harold Martin, Carl Smith
Hazel Griffiths, Grace Perrit, Viola Wagner
Doris Jesser, Marcella Potasz, Dorthy Williamson

BUSINESS STAFF

WEBSTER ALLEN ..... Financial Manager
Doris Weinstrom, Juanita Cole, Frances Youell

BOARD OF CONTROL

MISS CECELIA ANDERSON ..... Sponsor
Elizabeth Baker, chairman, Marian Phillips, secretary
Sarah Mason, Bertha Binter, Edna Denhard
Anne Sanbraillo

Editorials

The College Grows

The new semester started with a rush unprecedented in the history of our college. Before ten o'clock on Wednesday the library was thronged with groups of students clamoring for reserved books with which to prepare their first assignments. The cafeteria was crowded, even on the two registration days preceding the opening. Room 109 is still busy registering prospective students. College Hall is being strained to its utmost capacity. Ancient stairways and narrow hallways are filled with endless streams of students struggling to reach antiquated classrooms before the sounding of the second gong.

With the fame of our college growing by leaps and bounds, we are puzzled as to how we are going to care for the students if the registration increases at the amazing rate with which it has grown within the past year. Our library facilities, which seemed ample a year and a half ago, now seem to be fast becoming inadequate for taking care of the increasingly large number of students. We need a study hall for the convenience of those students who wish to study without consulting reference books other than texts. A large social hall (far removed from the study hall) would help to relieve congestion and provide for social contacts.

Our hope lies in a new, up-to-date administration building with classrooms equipped to take care of hundreds of students, instead of scores, as at present. Let us hope that our Legislature will soon take into consideration our increasing needs, and make us happy by an ample appropriation to take care of them. We know that our President and his administration have been doing their utmost to obtain modern facilities for us, and we marvel at their ingenuity in making an obsolete building continue to serve the needs of our present large enrollment as efficiently as it did in the days when we were truly "a small college."

To the Members of the Student Body

I wish to extend a sincere welcome to you and to express the hope that your college experience may be happy and profitable. It will be a pleasure to greet you personally and individually but I wish at this time to assure you of my desire to be of service to you while you are becoming adjusted to your new environment.

—Clarence J. Du Four.

As one observes the hundreds of young men and young women hurrying to and fro in our halls, or gathered for concentrated study in the library, one question looms persistently in the foreground: "How can we possibly know each of these students as an individual? How can we learn the fine qualities of leadership which each possesses?"

It is evident that in our rapidly growing college, much of the responsibility for becoming known as an individual rests with the student. What would be the effect on the college and upon the individual student if each of us resolved that for this coming year he would put his most worthwhile personal characteristic or his most outstanding ability at work in the service of the college? That class and club meetings would take on a new lease of life, that new activities would be created by students donating enthusiasm, initiative, executive ability and the qualities of social leadership, is self-evident. Student committees, and faculty committees would be fairly overwhelmed by the wealth of student ideas and suggestions for making this college the finest ever, and best of all, the merging of all of these constructive forces, would strengthen college loyalty, develop college spirit, promote real college growth.

Observing the fine things which you are doing, would give us the opportunity of knowing your strength and through your strong qualities, we would be able to guide your efforts to obtain the best a collge education has to offer in knowledge and in enriched personality. What have you to contribute which will enable us to become better acquainted with you, and which will add its quota in building of increased student leadership?

Mary A. Ward

Students Give Views On Women's Smoking On College Campus

The controversy has started — ignited by a T. N. T. contribution that exploded not long ago stating that smoking privileges upon the college grounds be extended to women students. What do the students themselves think?

Here is how a representative group feels about the question, "What is your personal opinion regarding smoking upon college grounds by women students?"

Answers:

Eva Veel—I believe that smoking, like any other pleasure, should be optional with the person concerned. A smoking-room should be the solution for those of the fair sex that really enjoy smoking.

Stanley Cox—To produce that inimitable embaradero atmosphere let the girls smoke. I believe in equal rights and all that sort of rhetoric, but I also believe that cigarette smoking destroys what femine charm dieting has left.

Bill Lewis—Give the ladies what they want. I've always said that.

Barbara Mason—Trying to be smart is a poor reason for smoking, but nine-tenths of the time that IS the reason. My answer is no, not around the college at least.

Dan Baker—Girls can smoke when and where they please as far as little Dan is concerned, only they've got to bring their own nicotine. My brand, just in case, is O. F. (other fellow's.)

Lois Gilmore—It looks like—the dickens!

Jack Bean—Smoking is taboo with me, and I hate to see a girl smoke.

Evelyn Hayburn—It's O. K. if the girls themselves really want it. I think a vote, however, would prove the number for smoking to be in the majority.

What do you think about it? Some are against smoking by women, others think it an infringement on personal liberty. Maybe the T. N. T. and Tertium Quid columns can see this thing through.

TERTIUM QUID

Today, you find here a "pet peeve" full of reserve.

A peeve—because it makes you all perturbed some time or other.

A pet peeve—because it gets to be a favorite irritation of yours.

A pet peeve full of reserve—because it has to do with the "reserve" side of certain books.

Now, to be more explicit.

Believe it or not, some of us are serious about this thing called college. Some of us are very conscientious about our assignments. But, sometimes we find ourselves slinking into class totally unprepared. And quite often, the fault isn't ours—it's our instructor's. You want me to explain? Alright—here goes ———

You have found out long ago that, here in college, there is more than one course which requires plenty of "outside" reading.

Naturally, the instructor of such a course tries to help the serious scholars, so he recommends a long list of books useful for research work. The students thank their lucky stars when the professor remarks that each of the books may be procured in the college library.

"That's fine," thinks the optimistic grind. "I'll go to the 'libe' right after lunch and read one of those books."

But wait a minute, innocent one. Experience should have taught you to get a book first and celebrate later!

Ah! But such innocence usually leads a student cheerily into the reserve section of the library. There, he quickly scans the card catalogue for, let us say, "Beard" by Smith Bros. only to find that nothing like it is listed.

"I'll try another one," he decides. But, after the fifth futile attempt he goes up to get assistance from one of the many attractive librarians.

"No," she disappoints him, "Dr. XYZ has put none of those works on reserve. Look in the other room— you MIGHT find some there."

But (and this is the way all tragedies end) our hero is doomed to greater dissappointment in the reference department.

All of the books are out!

So, instructors, here is the moral to this particular Tertium Quid:

If you want your classes to follow you in all of your expositions if you want your classes to show a gratifying I. Q. in all of your exams—please meet them halfway when it comes to this question of research work!

Remember, the college library has a limited supply of those works which you recommend as reference material. The public library, too, has only a certain amount of copies, if any.

So in order to play fair and to give everyone a chance, it is a wise policy to make a point of putting indispensible books on reserve. In this way, all of the students all of the time can get an even break at life, liberty, and the pursuit of research books.

As a parting word, let me remind you of a person whom tourists call a "road hog." He is the type of person who takes advantage of the whole road, unwilling always to relinquish it to a better man than he.

Such a person—"road hog"—can easily be compared to a "book hog"—one who dashes down to the library ahead of everyone to procure a book which a well-meaning instructor had no time to reserve before his recommendation of it.

Well, Tertium has the idea that the never-failing habit of putting on "reserve" certain works of great demand will kill the "book hog" quicker than any poison you might suggest.

Yours for more "reserve" and less "loss"

TERTIUM

—T. N. T.—

NO BOOKS—NO STUDY

Dear T. N. T.

Why must the faculty members order their books so late that the Book Store doesn't get them in time? And to make matters worse, assignments are due from students before the books are available for all. Can't something be done?

"On Time"

SPEAK ENGLISH FIRST

Dear T. N. T.

I read with interest the article in the BAY LEAF, advising North Americans to pronounce Latin American names as Latin Americans do.

This is a good idea provided we do not break the rules of orthoepy, or usage, or if we are speaking the language of these countries.

The people of England have always clung to English names when speaking of Munchen (Mention) Munich, Argentina (Our-hen toe-ah) is the Argentine, and Rio de Plata is the Plate River.

But—(Bo-Lieve'er) or not, simply Simon is good enough.

It's in speaking of places South of (Coo-bah) and (Mae-he-co) that we generally manage to get in a few licks of Spanish or what have you.

When we are traveling in South America and trying to speak their language, then, perhaps, we should be excused for telling our friends of the beauties of (Kneesah-zatt-ah) or that automobiles are made in (Detroat) but in the meantime "Let's be Common" and speak English . . .

GONE—SCHOOL SPIRIT

Dear T. N. T.

Who gave the school spirit away for a Christmas present? Maybe nobody knows it, but we have got a basket ball team. Is the college too cheap to give the team a little advertising?

It seems to me that if a few posters were placed around the building, and the dates of the game posted, maybe more people would be there to root for the team and give it some spirit to play on.

The players are all doing their part, so why can't the college get behind them?

A Supporter

LET TERTIUM ALONE

Dear T. N. T.

I want to answer the "friend of last term's English 15 class" by stating that I believe you have not the right to call yourself a true friend of the Bay Leaf.

I happen to be fortunate enough to know who Tertium really is. That is why I think you should apologize, if you could, for the statements printed last week concerning him.

Tertium worked hard with you all of last semester, and even semesters before that, to help your paper grow to what it is. But you in your ignorance criticized him on grounds just as flimsy as they could be. What's the difference if Tertium said, "Presto" out came a six column paper" just after his suggestion that there be one? Does that coincidence necessarily imply by him that it was through his efforts alone that a larger Bay Leaf finally came into existence?

Think it over, and while you do your little thinking, let me tell you Tertium Quid doesn't waste time patting himself on the back! He is too busy trying to promote genuine college spirit. I'm here to say that if there were more people like Tertium around here, our college is bound to come up to the standards that our president, Dr. Roberts, has set. So please do your condemning where the criticism would really help, instead of picking on someone who needs little or no criticism.

A Real Friend of Tertium.

PEP'S WHAT WE NEED

Dear T. N. T.

Have the pep rallies died a natural death? If not, why not continue the old collegiate custom and instill a little pep into the students of S. T. C.? One rally was held last term, just before the first basketball game, and the student turnout was greater than that of any other game. The rally is a sure method of success in athletics—why throw away this chance? Here's for longer and more frequent pep rallies.

A Rallyite

FRANCISCAN FRIERS

M. Lemon—"Do you know Kate, the suicide blonde?"

G. Perret—"The suicide blonde, what do you mean?"

M. Lemon—"She dyed with her own hand."

E. Gaffney—"Has anyone turned in a 'United States History' since 1870?"

Mrs. Marples—"Sorry, I haven't been here that long."

"Darling, you are the most beautiful woman in the world."

"Oh, Harold, how quick you are at noticing things."

The girl who looked well in anything she put on has a daughter who looks well without anything she takes off.

Ad in the personal column:
"If I give up the saxaphone will you come back to me?"

Chatty—"Oh, he's so romantic. When he addresses me he always calls me 'Fair Lady'."

Catty—"Force of habit, my dear. He's a conductor.

"I love you, dearie."
"You don't mean it."
"Gee, you're a regular mind reader."

Clothes make the man; lack of them, the women.

Mrs. Ellsworth: "You're late, Miss Williamson."

Dot Williamson: "Yes, well you see I'm sleeping on the sleeping porch now."

Mrs. Ellsworth: "What has that to do with your being late?"

Dot: "Well, there are eight of us on the sleeping porch and the alarm clock was set for seven."

Ernestine Fox: (After having answered the telephone) Miss Scott, Mrs. Casey just 'phoned and said that she is the mother of an eight pound baby and it's a Chinaman.

Mildred Scott: Chinaman? What do you mean?

Ernestine Fox: Well, I read once that every fifth child born in the United States was a Chinaman.

Can You Picture?

Mr. Butler without his mustache
Mrs. Monroe in an Austin
Doris Weinstrom not conversing with someone
Dr. Arnesen without his windblown
Allen Wyatt as a quiet and inconspicuous chap
George Belleu—six feet tall
Dot. Williamson a decided Brunette
Anyone not borrowing something or other
A Bay Leaf reporter having a notebook for interviews
Dr. Valentine not having a first name like "Percy"
Mary Moore '33 not occupying a seat on a certain bench at 8:00 A. M. till 3:15 P. M.
A Freshman not making a remark about the tennis courts
Jack Crowley not pointing his finger at his opponent in a basketball game.

VIEWS OF THE NEWS

By VIOLA GIESEN

An expert says that rocket planes
Are sure to be a wow—
That means a longer week-end trip
For Mars is nothing now!

A fast and famous ladies' man
Is Lindbergh's infant boy.—
He had his picture taken 'midst
A ring of women coy.

Einstein's home was burglarized
But Einstein doesn't mind —
I guess by relativity
His knives and forks he'll find.

Helen Moody, tennis champ,
Is strong for women's sports—
She never saw an ugly girl
Who graced the tennis courts.

Dreamers—tune in K.G.O.
For "Roads to Hollywood"—
They say to listen in on that
Will make you feel good.

The earth has great pulsations which
Compare with beating hearts—
No wonder sink and rise it does
As if by Cupid's darts!

Hen: (To another as a farmer passes by) "That's the fellow I'm layin' for."

WISE QUACKS

Jess: "Are you dining anywhere on Thursday, Gladys?"

Gladys: (eagerly) "Thursday? No."

Jess: "How hungry you'll be on Friday."

Jess: "What's the score?"
Sid: "Nothing to nothing."
Jess: "Good game?"
Sid: "It hasn't started yet."

Bill: "Did you see that charming girl smile at me?"

Virginia: "The first time I saw you I, too, had to smile."

Golfer (to members ahead) "Pardon, but would you mind if I played through? I've just heard that my wife has been taken seriously ill."

A roadside notice posted in New Hampshire:

"By order of the selectmen, cows grazing by the roadside or riding bicycles on the sidewalks is hereafter strictly forbidden." — Exchange.

And you might put this down on your date book as a little reminder: Pluto, known also as Planet X, will be nearest to the sun at 5:30 p. m., eastern standard time, November 6, 1989.

Hostess: "What's the idea of bringing two boy-friends with you?"

Guest: "Oh, I always carry a spare."

Unemployment song: "Hallelujah! I'm a bum!

Still, there must be one dull boy in every class to provide jobs in later years for the brilliant ones.

Gentleman—"You are an honest man to bring back my walking stick, and for your honesty, I will give you the stick. The silver mount is a bit worn, but any dealer will give you a good price for the stick.

Honest man—"No, sir. I have tried all over and no dealer will take it."

GLEE CLUB PLANS SEMESTER EVENTS AT FIRST MEETING

Extensive plans have been made by the Glee Club for the coming semester. The first meeting of the Glee Club was called to order Monday, January 12, at four o'clock by the president, Thelma Silvia. After she had welcomed the old members of the club and had wished them a successful semester, she introduced the other officers of the club: Audrey Moore, vice president; Ralph Cioffi, secretary; and Eva Starcovitch, treasurer.

Programs Planned

Work proper is to begin to plan programs Monday, January 19. The Glee Club plans a very elaborate program that will be given at different government hospitals and local organizations. It will take part in college affairs whenever they are requested to do so.

The club also plans to give many social events this term.

The first of these functions was given January 15 at four o'clock, in the activities room, at which time the Glee Club members of last semester visited with Dr. Rypins, former sponsor of the Glee Club, who has manifested great interest in the club activities. At this gathering the former president, Lillian Tyrrell, presented Dr. Rypins with a small wallet which the club hoped would in some small measure carry their fondest hopes for his complete success and happiness in the new work which he has undertaken.

Tea To Be Given

Wednesday, January 21, a tea will be given in the activities room to welcome the new members of the Glee Club.

The first dinner party to be given by the Glee Club this semester will be held on February 4. Plans for this affair have not yet been completed.

SCRIBES PLAN FOR ACTIVE TERM WORK

Anticipating an active semester, the Scribes Club is busy with plans for its members. Many well-known speakers are to be invited to attend the meetings. Pens and pencils are to be kept busy as often as possible.

A cordial welcome is extended to new students and freshmen who are interested in the writing of short stories and poems. Membership is obtainable by application or by invitation of any member. Meetings are to be held as usual Tuesdays at twelve o'clock, probably in the Activities Room.

Officers, elected to work for the club at the end of last semester, are: president, Jane Knight; vice-president, Marie Sime; secretary, Laura Denman. Miss Talbert is the faculty sponsor for the Scribes Club.

One Woman Rescued

Room 109, during registration, was having one of its very few quiet moments. Annie Kael, in charge of Station 2, found the stillness so soothing that she soon fell asleep. However, her sleep was troubled by dreams of mice. And when one mouse tried to run up her leg, Annie woke up with a gasp and a jump, landing upon a chair. Several young men rushed to Miss Kael's rescue. So Annie, saved and sane, again resumed her work at Station 2, much wiser, much burnt.

Novels Appeal To Faculty Husband

THIS college has been wrapped up in a monstrous mystery for the past seven days.

Folks are wondering why the best fiction is missing from the library. Who has the books?

Last week, Mrs. Bridge was seen taking five suspicious volumes from the fiction shelf. It's queer how so busy an instructor can afford to read such spicy material between classes.

Upon questioning the vivacious young lady, it was found that she had no intention of reading the ultra-popular books.

It seems that Mrs. Bridge, who recently plunged into matrimony, is actualiy being forced to carry home soulful novels to Mr. Bridge!

But then—they're newly-weds—and they'll do it every time!!!

:: Glee Club Plans Activities ::

International Club's Bull Session Is Set For Saturday Night

Meeting for the first time in the spring term, the International Club, sponsored by Mrs. Bertha Monroe, held a discussion on "The Western Influence in the Orient," Wednesday, January 14, in the Activities Room. Miss Christine Huttman and Mrs. James Beckwith led the discussion.

An International Bull Session of the club is scheduled to meet Saturday evening, January 17, at 7:00 o'clock at the Chinese Y. M. C. A., 855 Sacramento street, between Stockton and Grant avenue. With this as a starting point, the group will go to a Chinese restaurant for dinner. No definite plans for talks have been made for the affair is to conform to the Bull Session idea. Following the dinner, the group will tour Chinatown, led by a guide. The charge will be about seventy-five cents a person, and students wishing to attend must notify Box 72 immediately.

Henry Barsotti, club president, urges new students to join and take advantage of the club's many and varied activities and opportunities for general world topics discussion. The other officers of the club are Paul Baptiste, vice-president, and James Beckwith, secretary-treasurer.

CLUB HOLDS FALL BUSINESS MEETING

Delta Sigma Nu held its last business meeting of the fall semester. Election of officers was in order. Those nominated and elected are as follows: president, Katehryn Conroy; vice-president, Oriana Stahl; secretary-treasurer, Marion Tardiff; and historian, Ruth Jones.

Miss Conroy having been a very successful president last semester was re-elected this semester.

Plans are being made for a very busy and socially attractive semester. Those wishing to become members will kindly get an application for membership from Oriana Stahl, vice president of the Club.

Paint Worries None

Amid paint buckets, unbearable odors, and a general confusion, the Physical Education Instructors are getting along famously. They have conducted their extra large classes very well in spite of the fact that they are being put to a great deal of inconvenience. Imagine having important books and papers piled up in such a manner that one all but breaks his neck to get at them.

But gym teachers are good sports—always!

"Rice" Is Accurate

Dean Du Four was giving a lecture in which the word "rise" had to be used many times. But, to the amusement of several young men in the last few rows, the Dean pronounced the word as if it were spelled "rice." By the middle of the period the amusement seemed so great that the lecturer stopped and explained that his pronunction was the correct one. Imagine how red some faces were on those who thought that at last they "had something" on Dean Du Four!

K. P. Club Meets

No—not the Knights of Pithius it's the Kindergarten Primary club that will hold its first meeting Wednesday, January 14, at four o'clock, extends an invitation to the freshmen and transfer students who are kindergarten-primary students. Miss Taubman also welcomes back all members.

Freshmen And Governor Agree

GOVERNOR James Rolph, in his inaugural address last Tuesday, unwittingly won for himself the support of about 200 S. T. C. freshmen. For when mid-terms come around, these freshmen will heartily agree with the Governor's statement that "too many unnecessary courses are being given in our schools." Sure—what's the use of Zoology, Education, and English 1-A, anyhow?

Registrar's Office Scene Of Luncheon

Miss Clara Crumpton's office was the scene of a very exclusive Christmas luncheon, December 23. It is still undecided whether the celebration was a formal affair or a picnic. For although the room was lit only by candles, and although an electric percolator stood on Miss Crumpton's desk, lunch was served in regular picnic style—paper plates and all.

In honor of Miss Vance, spagetti "with lots of garlic," formed the main course. Dean Du Four, passing by, came in long enough to sit on a tiny kindergarten chair and drink a cup of coffee.

Despite the fact that many interruptions came from an Englishman registering his son, everyone had a good time. And a mark on Miss Crumpton's desk, made by the percolator, remains as a lasting reminder of the Christmas celebration.

Those present were: Dean Clarence Du Four, Miss Florence Vance, Miss Clara Crumpton, Mrs. Emily Ray, Alice Rich, Grace Smith, Wilma Orton, Marian Tardiff, and Gertrude Kraus.

New Class Large

Word received from the Registrar's Office indicates that S. T. C. is going to have a record registration this semester. 322 new students have applied for admission as against 78 who filed application a year ago. Classrooms are threatened to be overtaxed as the influx of students for the two semesters has far exceeded expectations.

Song Writer Is Here

Stanley Cox, versatile high freshman, who plays the organ among diverse accomplishments, has recently become a song writer. His most recent composition is entitled, "Till I Looked In Your Eyes." The words were also written by a S.T.C. student who would rather withhold his name until the first recordings are made.

O'! A Lady Faints

Telephone conversation Thursday, January 8, 1931.

Act I.

"Hello, is this Miss Thorton?" "Yes." "Well, this is the Registrar's Office. Are you coming back to school this semester?" Miss Thorton stammering, "W-why sure, but school opens Monday, doesn't it?" Registrar's office, "No, it opened last Monday, and if you don't get down here and register you won't get in. So wake up and get a move on."

Act II.

"Ten dollars and a half please, for late registration. "My heavens, someone bring the respirator; the woman's fainted!"

Phi Lambda Chi To Initiate Twenty New Pledges This Spring

Twenty pledges will be initiated by Phi Lambda Chi this semester, according to President Alice Rich. At a cabinet meeting of the sorority held Wednesday evening the following program was made:

January 14—First Meeting, 7:30 p. m.

January 24—Business Meeting, 7:30 p. m.

January 30—Informal Initiation and Pajamarino, 7:30 p. m.

February 11—Formal Initiation of Pledges.

February 15—Formal Tea, 4-6 p. m.

February 25—Social Meeting.

March 11—Business Meeting.

March 13—Jinks Dance, 9 p. m.

March 25—Business Meeting.

April 8—Social Meeting.

April 11—Dance.

April 15—Business Meeting.

April 29—Election of Officers.

May 1—Installation Dinner.

The officers for this semester are: President, Alice Rich; Vice-President, Rosemarie McKenna; secretary, Ellen Alexander; Treasurer, Evelyn Rafter; Historian, Charlene Crawford.

Phi Lambda Chi is trying to have all of its meetings and social events at the club house at 1927 Washington Street.

Music Instructor Gives KPO Programs

The plays which are broadcast during the Children's Theater of the Air programs each Wednesday evening at 8:00 p. m. over KPO are the work of Mrs. Mary Mc Cauley and Mrs. John Cuddy. Mrs. Cuddy adapted the plays for radio use, and Mrs. McCauley wrote the music.

"Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," written in seven episodes is now being given. Other plays which will be presented are: Pandora's Box," "Cinderella," "Jack and Jill," and "Florinda."

The children who take part in these radio plays are from the Frederic Burk Training School.

Concerts Heard

Several members of State Teachers College attended the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra Concert at the Curran Theatre, Sunday, January 11. Issay Dobrowen is the new conductor of the symphony. Mr. Dobrowen had on his program some very charming selections of the well known composers Strauss, Debuessy, and Tschaikowsky.

A few members of this college who attended were: Madeline Meginness, Mae Quick, and Mary Kennett. The people received Mr. Dobrowen very enthusiastically. All, however, are looking forward to more of these concerts.

Dinner Is Held

A dinner was given January 14, by the San Francisco State Teachers College faculty to welcome new members who are Dr. Garland Ethel, and Mr. James B. Sharp, and to bid farewell to Dr. Stanley I. Rypins, who is leaving for New York to become professor of English and chairman of that department at Brooklyn College, New York City.

As a form of entertainment several speeches were made during the evening by members of the faculty.

Editor—"Did you ever do work on a paper before?"

M. Davis—"Yes, ma'am."

Editor—"What did you do?"

M. Davis—"Cross-word puzzles."

Mrs. Dorris Advises Visual Instruction For Future Teachers

It is possible that student teachers do not realize how important visual instruction is to their future work. Small children better understand their subject by having it illustrated to them in pictures than by having it taught to them from a book. The colored pictures hold their attention and naturally the child absorbes more readily. He looks forward to his geography or history lesson with pleasure rather than with dread.

COURSE TO BE GIVEN

There is a course in visual instruction being given at S. T. C. by Mrs. Anna V. Dorris. This course is open to any of those students who wish to take advantage of it. Outside the regular course hours, the visual room is open from eight to nine in the morning and from twelve to one in the afternoon. Miss Helen Jorgensen is the regular attendant. She is there to provide whatever visual materials one requires. All kinds of material, slides in particular, can be obtained. There are also some rolls of motion picture film.

HELP OFFERED

Mrs. Dorris will be very glad to help prospective teachers by appointment, and to give them advice concerning visual instruction. She hopes that the students will make wide use of the materials and learn proper manipulation of the visual machine, so that they will be more fully prepared when they begin their teaching.

SPHINX CLUB PLANS INTERESTING TERM

The Sphinx Club, (formerly the Bookaneers) held its first meeting of the term at four o'clock January 12 in Room 109. Dr. E. Arneson, the faculty advisor, welcomed the new members and outlined the club's plans for the term. He said—that they intended to devote their time to the study of the drama although not exclusively. He plans to introduce faculty members at various times who will address the club on certain controversal subjects.

Dr. Arneson spoke of a Sphinx Club that he, Dr. G. Ethel and Dr. F. Cave belonged to in Washington. The members of this club would gather and discuss various topics. Dr. Ethel gave a short talk on the value of discussion and hoped that the Sphinx Club would resemble the gatherings of the ancient Greeks.

Death Takes A Holiday, a play that has recently run in San Francisco was fully discussed from every angle. Next week the club plans to discuss Ibsen and his plays. Dr. Arneson, who comes from Oslo, the same city that Ibsen lived in, promised to give some high-lights on the noted playwrigt's life.

Sidney Trager: I used to get pie in my ears when I was young.

Ruth Delaney: Pie in your ears?

Sid Trager: Yep, those were the good old Pioneer days!

THE HELPING HAND

Conducted by
FRED WAHL, Box 537

Students of S. F. State:

Beginning with this issue a general column is being innaugurated to cover the following needs; exchange, lost and found; for sale, wanted, and employment. This is to be a free service to members of the student body and faculty. The exchange will handle all varieties of articles, from gym clothes to slightly used mother-in-laws; however this is not a matrimonial bureau. Merely write your notices as clearly as possible, following the form of the ones below. Address them to Fred Wahl, box 537, in charge of this column.

LOST

1 silver block M pen with the initials P. E. inscribed on front. Finder please communicate with box 210.

WANTED

Names of students free on Tuesday afternoons from 2:00 P. M. on, who would like to care for children when P. T. A. meets. See Dean Ward.

EMPLOYMENT WANTED

(Coaching)

Gertrude Dooley. Market 2752. Coaching experience.

Mary McCairon (Box 245). 1 yr. office work, typing and bookkeeping. 1 yr. teaching. U. C. Grad. coach.

(Part Time Work)

Negress, coaching, typing, shorthand, cooking. 12 free daily. Box 134.

Armenian. Box 1023; wants part time housework.

(Typist)

Helen King—Box 419. Excellent typist. 3 year's exp. Wants full time work.

Dorothy Silex—Box 345. Typing and office work.

Frances Morrow. Teacher of experience. Stenographer 10 years. Just left position. Free Tues., Thurs., Sat. Wants part time work. Apply to Dean Ward.

ROOM FOR RENT

Very desirable room in pleasant home, open to college women. Phone Atwater 3937. Rent $10 to $12. Kitchen privilages.

Mrs. Monroe wants a Kindergarten Major who is able to handle singing games, paper house project, for spring festival at the Japanese Y. W. C. A.

FRANCES HALL

Young Chinese woman wants room and board and $15.00 compensation in return for services in the home. Box 531 or Dean Ward.

Math Course Given

Mathematics 11-A will be offered at S. T. C. this spring. This course has previously been given only in the fall. The work offered in this course is very beneficial to those students taking chemistry and physics. It is also required in the mathematics minor.

1931

a year of opportunities for Northern California

MORE than $350,000,000 . . . estimated for new building in Northern California this year . . . what a forecast for prosperity! And this is only the beginning.

The next decade will see thousands of new, young leaders in industry and commerce. Will you be one of them? Then you must plan ahead and train for your success.

Heald College has trained more than a Quarter Million men and women for business since 1863 . . . many of them are now leaders of international recognition.

This year . . . 1931 . . . Heald College will again furnish its full quota of leaders.

Ask for the Heald Scholarship Plan
Day and Evening Classes

Heald College

Mr. A. L. LESSMAN, Manager
VAN NESS at POST STREET OR dway 5500
SAN FRANCISCO

S. T. C. TO PLAY SANTA ROSA TOMORROW

SPORTS

W. A. A. SCHEDULES VARIED SPRING PROGRAMS

OREGON NORMAL BEATS S. T. C. BY FIVE POINTS

FAST-BREAKING OFFENSE GIVES INVADERS LEAD

The husky Oregon Normal basketball team earned a 26 to 19 victory over S. F. State, Monday night, January 12, on the college court. At half time the winners held only a two point lead, and they were leading by this slim margin in the final minutes of the game, at which time Coach Wolfe's squad unleashed a fast-breaking offense that was not to be denied. Five points were chalked up by the invaders in quick succession during this rally by Murr and Holt, Oregon forwards, to put the game on ice.

Trailing by two points, with the final whistle due in a few short minutes, State threw defense to the winds in an attempt to even matters up. It was during this lapse of over-aggressiveness that Oregon put the issue beyond doubt.

Holt Stars At Forward

The brilliant basket tossing by Holt, Oregon forward, was the bright spot of the evening. He obtained high point honors with ten points, while Henry and Kaufman led the State with five digits each.

Coach Cox's charges lose no honor in defeat, for they put up a strong fight against a more experienced team. The Oregon men have lost only one game in five starts.

Balm to the wounds of State supporters was the victory turned in by the State '30s in the preliminary game, in which S. T. C. engaged the cagers of Sacred Heart College. The final score, 20-16, was realized only after an extra period had been played. The score at the end of the regular period was tied at 16-16.

S. T. C. Stars Score

Tallies by Gemagnini and King in the extra period put S. T. C. out in front, to the immense relief of State fans.

Gemagnini, consistent State star, was high point man of the game with eleven points to his credit. Trager and Fisher played good defensive games, Fisher also making his mark on offense by scoring four points.

Line-ups and individual scores follow:

VARSITY

STATE	Pts.	OREGON	Pts.
Henry, F.	5	Murr, F.	7
Crowley, F.	4	Holt, F.	10
Goldman, C.	1	Ayers, C.	6
Garden, G.	4	Edwards, G.	0
Kaufman, G.	5	Watkins, G.	3
	Total 19		Total 26

130s

STATE	Pts.	Sacred Heart	Pts
Gemagnani, F.	11	Burns, F.	2
Cioffi, F.	0	Norton, F.	6
Traumberg, C.	0	Croson, C.	1
King, G.	4	Fisher, G.	5
Trager, G.	1	Powers, F.	4
Fisher, C.	4	Clark, F.	0
	Total 20		Total 16

Referee — HARRIS

Athletic Stars Here

Two more former high school athletes have been picked out from the crowd of new men students entering this semester. One of them, Melville Nickerson by name, is well known in trans-bay athletic circles for his achievements on the diamond. He played on the Berkeley High team.

The second athlete is also from across the bay. He is Ramsay Straub, former football and track performer at Berkeley High.

S. T. C. Football Prospects Grow

"SIX-ten-four-two-hike." Football! The great event, S. T. C.'s first football game, seems nearer every day.

The latest development is the goal-posts newly erected on the athletic field. Last week three industrious workers built two souvenirs for the college's rivals to carry off—maybe.

The newest rumor around college is that spring football practice begins in March with a number of former high school stars signed up. Prospects seem good.

What could give the co-eds hereabouts more of a thrill than to see and hear this evidence that S. T. C. is to play inter-collegiate football this fall? Everyone's anticipating an exciting season. Come on, let's go.

Dean Cox Appoints Athletic Managers

Coach Dave Cox appointed, last semester, a staff of assistants whose work carries over to the end of this semester. Of special note at this time is the fact that all of them are ticket salesmen. They sell to the students the tickets for every men's athletic contest in which S. T. C. takes part. All students are urged to buy a ticket when approached by one of this staff. Each ticket sold means additional help for Men's Athletics which is an essential factor in the collegiate aspirations of S. T. C. The men's athletic staff is the following:

Allen Wyatt, general manager; Arthur Rosenbaum, first assistant manager; James Sticheomb, second assistant manager; Sidney Trager, basketball manager; Bill Pratt, first assistant basketball manager; Jess Fisher, second assistant basketball manager; James Beckwith, track manager; Frank Howard, swimming manager; Harry Rogie, tennis manager; Bill Connolly, football manager.

Trager Is Manager

Basketball being S. T. C.'s major concern at the present time, the fine work of the basketball manager may be properly noticed. There are those details of any enterprise which can help or hinder and which must be looked after. The details of management of the S. T. C. hoopsters are taken care of by Sid Trager.

Santa Clara's baseball varsity expects to begin practice for 1931 intercollegiate contests within a few days.

The appointment of a new coach to succeed Coach Marvin "Freck" Owen has been given consideration by the board of athletic control, but no announcement will be made until late this month, according to Alvin J. Wolf, general manager.

If the moon had a baby would the skyrocket?

SANTA ROSA J. C. vs. S.T.C. SATURDAY

Coach Cox is putting his charges through some hard licks in preparation for their coming game with the Santa Rosa Junior College basketball Team. Practice is being held throughout the week in order to straighten out some of the faults which were so apparent in the Oregon State Normal game.

In the last three games the Starters have been taking at least two shots to their opponents one, but have not succeeded in sending the ball through the hoop, and that is what wins games. The Staters defense has been clicking fairly well in their last two games but the offense has been ragged.

If Coach Cox starts his first string, fans will see Goldman, Center; Crowly and Henry, Forwards; Garden and either Horner or Kaufman, Guards; in at the opening whistle. The Santa Rosa team is an unknown quantity to the Staters, but from past teams have managed to gain the respect of all their opponents. The game is scheduled to be played at Santa Rosa J. C. on Saturday January 17, at 8 P. M.

Extensive Program Scheduled By W.A.A.

If enough students will enroll in horseback riding and crew, W. A. A. will add these sports to its list of after-school activities.

According to Gladys Benerd, W. A. A. has scheduled an extensive program for this spring semester, with an ice skate on February 18. The first big event is the freshman spread on January 16. This will be the starting whistle for after-school practice. Basketball practice will start on January 19, and close March 6 with a big rally in the gym from seven to nine o'clock. March 9 will see the beginning of baseball, which will also close with a rally from four to six o'clock, April 24.

Manager Russelle Gettemy says that swimming will begin on January 20.

Yell Leader Acts

Another great freshman of whom the college expects to see much in days to come is Leonard Christensen. A more up and coming young man can not be found. Mr. Christensen, ye who know not, is the worthy yell-leader of the freshman class.

Elected unanimously at a recent class meeting, "Len" set forth ambitiously to exhibit his skill. The fact that he had never before attempted to lead a yell dampened his ardor not one bit, and, although the class laughed, they applauded. And they are well satisfied with the result of at least one election.

Golf Club Plans

Members of the Golf Club under the leadership of Miss Hale are planning many interesting events for the coming term. Actions have been started to affilate this club with the Women's Athletic Association. A two-ball tournament is to be an added attraction to the club for this spring.

During the Christmas holidays the members have been playing diligently, gaining more accuracy, and reducing their strokes, all to make a finer game.

SPORT FLASHES

When the call of "Fore!" heralds the approach of a little white pellet it calls attention to a product which costs the 3,000,000 golfers in the U. S. $20,000,000 annually. It is estimated that the golf-bugs in this country spend a total of about $1,112,500,000 on golf each year.

Altho "Nibs" Price, basketball coach of the U. of California, was ousted from his job as grid coach because of the poor record of his 1930 team, it is unlikely that he will ever be asked to surrender the leadership of the basketball quintet. His record as coach of the hoop squad is one that has not been equalled by any coast mentor since Price took over the reigns at the trans-bay institution. His teams have four times won the conference title and in 1928 tied for runner-up honors. He has been coaching at "Cal" for several years.

Stanford, which defeated Price grid team so decisively last year, has never taken a basketball game from a Price-coached team.

The Atlantic News Bureau at Oregon State College, Corvallis, Oregon, recently compiled an all-Pacific Coast conference football team as selected by the ten Pacific Coast conference quarterbacks.

The quarterbacks who selected the squad are: Ed. Griffiths, California; Ralph Buerke, Oregon State; Art Obers, Washington; Marshall Duffield, S. C.; George Wilson, Idaho; Jack Erdley, Oregon; Kermit Ekegren, Montana; Bill Tonkin, Washington State; Ed Solomon, U. C. L. A.; and Harry Hillman, Stanford.

Here are the athletes who were chosen as the best on the coast by the quarterbacks who opposed them on the playing field:

Ends—McKalip, Oregon State; Arbelbide, Southern California

Tackles — Edwards, Washington State; Schwegler, Washington.

Guards—Baker, Southern California; Ted Beckett, California.

Center—Hein, Washington State.

Quarterback — Duffield, Southern California.

Halfbacks—Pinckert, Southern California; Kitzmiller, Oregon.

Fullback — Schwartz, Washington State.

Washington University, long famous for its nationally-known crews, has over 100 oarsmen candidates for this year's varsity. Washington's stiffest competition from coast colleges and universities for the last several years has been provided by the Blue and Gold of California.

Purdue University in 1929 set up an enviable sport record when neither the football, nor the basketball team was defeated in inter-collegiate competition.

Melvin Hornbeck, guard, and Aubrey Stringer, halfback, today were elected co-captains of the 1931 Menlo Junior College football team.

S. F. STATE TEAM IS DOWNED BY 39-17 SCORE

SAN JOSE TEAM LEADS HARD FOUGHT BATTLE

The San Jose State Teachers College basketball team defeated the S. T. C. quintet on Saturday, January 10, at San Jose. The game that was figured to be 'a slight workout' for the Sparatans turned out to be a hard fought contest that was only decided by the Spartan's ability to sink their foul shots. The San Jose five sunk 15 out of 17 free throws for a percentage of 88 per cent. S. T. C. sank only 1 foul out of 11.

The Spartans went into an early lead and were never headed throughout the contest, the score at half time being 22 to 8. High point honors went to Goodell, star forward for the Spartans, who scored five field goals and five fouls for a total of 15 points. High scorer for the S. T. C. team was Henry, who scored 8 points. Crowly; S. T. C. forward, played a great game in that position and followed Henry with 7 points to his credit.

SANTA ROSA GAME NEXT

Horner and Kaufman went out of the game with four personal fouls after playing a "thanzup" game at guards. A large crowd attended the game; many members of the student body journeyed down to see it. The team as a whole played their best ball of the season but there is still a great deal of room for improvement especially in shooting fouls. Practice will start on Tuesday in preparation for the game with the Santa Rosa Junior College team which is to be played at Santa Rosa on Saturday, Jan 17, at 8:00 p. m.

Lineup as follows:

S. F. State	S. J. State
Henry, forward	Vaets, forward
Crowly, forward	Goodell, forward
Brass, forward	George, forward
Goldman, center	Fowler, center
Kaufman, guard	Countryman, c
Horner, guard	Kalas, guard
Garden, guard	Kercham, guard
	Lazanibat, guard

COLLEGE SWIMMERS VISIT CALIFORNIA

"See California First" will be the motto of S. T. C. aquatic stars during the coming season if the invitations sent out by the swimming manager bear fruit. A long list of colleges, junior colleges, and universities have received challenges from this college. Among the many who have been asked for meets are the U. of San Francisco, St. Mary's College, College of the Pacific, Fresno State, San Jose State, Stanford Frosh, California Frosh, and most of the teachers' colleges of the state.

S. T. C. swimmers will necessarily travel a great deal because all of their swimming meets must be held in their adversaries' tanks because of the lack of facilities here.

Men Arrange Swim

First call for candidates for the swimming and track teams is expected to go forth very shortly. Arrangements have been made for use of the Y. M. I. tank for practice several times a week by prospective swimming stars.

Frank Howard, manager of the swimming team, will compete as one of the team members. Swimming has been popular at S. T. C. in the past and several men have had experience on the squad in past seasons. Don Pryor and Paul Baptiste are expected to star with the Purple and Gold mermen.

LIFE

From the price you are expected to pay to check your hat in a swell restaurant, the least they could do while you are dining would be to dry-clean it.

EXECUTIVE BOARD OF W.A.A. CONFERS

The executive board of the W. A. A. held its first meeting of the semester Friday, January 2, at three o'clock. Plans for the new semester were discussed.

It was decided that the first event of importance will be the Freshman Spread. The spread will be given January 16. This welcome is for the incoming class and friends. Lillian De Hay is chairman, with the following assistants: Margaret Mareck, entertainment and decoration; Dale Brown, refreshments.

Before midterms there will be an ice skatin, party, perhaps to prepare the students for the falls to come, and a roller skating party.

Baseball starts January 19, and ends at midterms. Students are welcome to turn out for this, as well as tennis, and swimming which run throughout the semester.

The outstanding event will be the annual playday, which will be held with San Jose, Saturday, April 11 on this campus. Marian Donaldson will be in charge.

Phone MA rket 9101
FRANKLIN GRILL
Private Booths for Ladies
538 HAIGHT STREET
Near Fillmore San Francisco

GANTNER-FELDER-KENNY
Funeral Directors
1965 Market St. at Duboce Ave.
HE mlock 0132 San Francisco

HOLLAND & MOLKENBUHR JEWELERS
SHREVE BLDG. SAN FRANCISCO

Warren B. Hayward
Catering Company
3210 GEARY STREET

Wilson's fine food
RESTAURANT · FOUNTAIN · CANDY
— three San Francisco stores — 333 Geary St., 708 Clement St., Bellevue Hotel · also Palo Alto · Fresno · Stockton · Sacramento
THE CANDY WITH A COLLEGE EDUCATION

Star Palace of Sweets
TOASTED SANDWICHES
SPECIAL LUNCHES
HAIGHT Nr. FILLMORE ST.

Typewriters Rented
3 Months $5.00
Rent applied on the purchase
VICTOR H. TIBBS CO.
464 Pacific Bldg. GA rfield 6634

TYPEWRITERS RENTED
SPECIAL RATES to Students
Typewriter Guy
1156 MARKET STREET
(Opp. Crystal Palace Mkt.)
Phone MA rket 8322

Violet Jelley Pansy Cassimus
WISTERIA BEAUTY
:: and ::
GIFT SHOPPE
254 FILLMORE STREET
UN derhill 7156
Shampoo and Finger Waving $1.00
Hair Dyeing a Specialty
Hemstitching · Gifts · Lingerie

Ford
Special Terms to
TEACHERS - STUDENTS
You can purchase a new Coupe or Sedan for only $170.00 cash, balance $31.00 per month.
Or a used model of car for only $95.00 cash and balance approximately $20.00 per month.
SERVICE and REPAIRS
Day - Nite - Sunday
Kresteller Motor Co.
Market Street at Dolores

YOUR COLLEGE CAFETERIA
Has Attractive Food
At Attractive Prices
S. F. S. T. C. CAFETERIA

KEarny 7109
Dance Programs
EMBLEMS
Club Pins
VAN WORMER & RODRIGUES
MANUFACTURING JEWELERS ENGRAVERS - STATIONERS

Students Co-operative Store
NEW BINDERS, TEXTBOOKS, PENS, PAPER, COLLEGE JEWELRY. . . . .